THE DAILY UNIVERSE.

There's a journal that's kept on running,
Since ever the world began,
Its feature is illustrations,
And millions its issues scan;
Its office is up in the azure, Unless with an O. K'd permit,
And God is the editor's name.

It's printed in divers colors,
In style it is clear and terse;
Its name to a fault is explicit—It's known as The Universe;
And whoever runs may read it—
The price that there is to pay,
To rich and poor all the same is—
Of every life a day.

It's issued first thing every morning,
And gets out again at noon,
It also appears at sunset,
And once more at rise of moon;
There's sometimes an earthquake special,
Or an extra rainbow page,
Or a cute typhoon edition,
When the elements enrage.

Its circulation has fattened,
Since the day of the primal print,
And will steadily go on booming,
Till it gives a fiery hint
That subscriptions all have expired,
But seeing the ends in view—
Why, readers and other patrons
Will kindly not renew.

In that "seventh story star-lighted office,
The Editor sits alone,
For he bars the place to seraphs,
And gets out the sheet on his own;
None of the angels are printers,
So he must his work perform,
But he never smudges the colors,
And he never "piss" the form.

The sun and the moon and the lightning,
The rainbow, the stars and the snow,
Appear in the pages and glisten—Eternally glisten and glow;
Each working the will of the Master—
That he who hath eyes to see,
May look through the star-studded portals Far into eternity.

THE ANGLE LAMP

THE LIGHT

FAILS.

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the Island people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is an object to some people, but, besides being infinitely cheaper, it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a demonstration of the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.80 up.

LATEST NOVELTIES IN

Trimmings and Neckwear

The All Overs are as popular as ever. We are showing not only the Ecru and Black, but also some High-Novelties in Chiffons, Galloons, with Ribbons drawn through, are a prominent feature this year and show exceedingly well. For Jets also, the Galloon effects prevail. Chiffon Lace Collars in White and Black.
The L'Aiglon idea has also taken possession of the Neckwear trade: they are certainly very stylish and should find a ready sale.

Wash Goods

We have not altogether stopped importing from Europe, as some people think. A fine lot of French Organdies has been received. The quality is sheer and shows beautiful patterns. Gingham and Dimities are also in stock. As there is such a demand for WHITE GOODS we have displayed some of our best patterns in our window—checks and stripes.

Wash Ribbons

In all the popular shades.

Grenadines

If you are planning a Black Silk Dress come and see our New Patterns in Plain Black Silk Grenadines they are 45 inches wide.

Defender Ready-Made Sheets

All the popular brands in Ready-Made Pillowcases and Sheets—special feature. Every Sheet and Pillow-case is torn, giving straight edges after washing. The measurements indicate the length of the Sheet and Pillowcases AFTER HEM IS TURNED IN, giving greater length than is customary.

New Belts

L'Aiglon Belts; the new idea of wearing Pompons of Ribbons and Ribbon Streamers, ornamented with gilt spikes, is sure to be very popular; we have a few on hand, also every day sellers in Solid Black and Tans.

A Word to Mothers.

If you have forgotten to have a new WHITE DRESS for the little one for Easter Sunday, visit our store and find a well assorted stock of Childrens' Dresses and Kilts. Also Babies' Bonnets and Christening Robes.
